Food Protection Program 2020 ServSafe Examination Only Schedule

LEVEL TWO CERTIFICATION IN FOOD PROTECTION EXAMINATION

Our Food Protection Program administers and proctors ServSafe Manager Course Examinations for those individuals needing to re-take the exam after completing our ServSafe Manager Course. Individuals who have completed the ServSafe Manager Online Course (7th Edition) can also take our proctored examination, provided they supply us their certification of online course completion. If a passing examination score is achieved, the following certificates will be issued: ServSafe Manager Course Certificate issued by ServSafe, and Level Two Certification in Food Protection issued by the Ohio Department of Health. The Ohio Uniform Food Safety Code states that all Risk Level III & IV food facilities must have one employee with supervisory and management responsibility who has obtained a Level Two Certification in Food Protection Certificate.
