

CAR SEAT CHRONICLES

CAR SEAT SAFETY. SPRING EDITION

SPRING CLEANING?

Don't just look at clothes when going through 'old' items. Make sure to check your child's car seat to ensure it hasn't expired.

Unless the car seat manual/label states differently, car seats expire after 6 years. Car seat designs and safety measures change, expiration dates ensure every child is in the safest seat.

GROWTH SPURT?

Flowers aren't the only thing growing this season.

A growth spurt might have you looking at a booster seat. Make sure your child meets the legal requirements of 4 years old AND 40lbs before moving them to this seat.
