

Job Posting

POSITION: Emergency Response Coordinator

DATE POSTED: January 14, 2023

AGENCY: Licking County Health Department

Qualifications and Required Knowledge:

Under general supervision from the Health Commissioner and other designated staff, conducts Emergency Planning and Response Programs; develops and revises emergency response plans; coordinates staff training; represents department on state, regional, and local emergency planning committees; responds to public health emergencies; prepares reports and after-action reports; maintains compliance with grant requirements; perform other duties as assigned.

Bachelor's Degree in Public Health, Emergency Management, or related field is required.

HOURS: Full Time: Monday – Friday, 8:00AM-5:00PM. Occasional evening and weekend hours.

SALARY: $46,667.92 - $60,668.30

APPLICATION PROCEDURES: Please email resume and cover letter no later than February 3, 2023 to:

Adam Masters
Planning and Preparedness Manager
amasters@lickingcohealth.org

Successful candidates will be subject to pre-employment drug screening

The Licking County Health Department is an Equal Opportunity Employer