

Job Posting

POSITION: Dietician or Dietetic Technician

DATE POSTED: August 28, 2024

AGENCY: Licking County Health Department

Qualifications and Required Knowledge:

Determines client eligibility for the WIC program; conducts interviews with parents of small children and pregnant or postpartum women to gather dietary intake information, evaluates anthropometric and dietary intake data to determine nutritional needs of clients (e.g., hematocrit/hemoglobin/lead test, height, weight, etc.); prescribes individualized food packages; provides high risk follow-up counseling as needed; refers clients to other agencies for assistance as data dictates.

HOURS: Part Time: Up to 24 hours/week

SALARY: Dietician $22.44-$29.17 Dietetic Technician $20.64-$26.84

DUTIES:

- Plans, prepares and conducts individual and group nutrition education sessions with W.I.C. participants; serves as a resource for nutrition information for community health care providers; assists in policy development and implementation as requested.
- Completes data entry; schedules clients and issues coupons.
- Assists in client check-in process as needed; determines income of clients and application completion and completion of clinic services as needed.

APPLICATION PROCEDURES: To apply please send a resume, cover letter, and references to Todd Kirkpatrick, Director of Maternal and Child Health, at tkirkpatrick@lickingcohealth.org.

Applications must be received by September 9, 2024.

The Licking County Health Department is an Equal Opportunity Employer